SUBJECT: Boards & Commissioners – Lyons Regional Library District Board of Trustees appointment

The Lyons Regional Library District Board of Trustees has one vacancy because of Bill Palmer's departure. The Board conducted an open recruitment process by placing ads in the local press and through word of mouth, which yielded one applicant. The applicant is thoroughly vetted, and the Board of Trustees will be appointing the following individual to its board.

Katherine Gregory – Lives within the Lyons district in Boulder County with her family, and she is the Chief Executive Officer of Colorado Horse Rescue. She brings great depth and breath of experience leading a successful non-profit organization. Katherine has a strong belief in the ethos of community service and a genuine commitment to lifelong learning through the services that are provided in the Lyons Regional Library and its surrounding community.

This communication is for informational purposes as the Boulder County Board of Commissioners does not appoint members to the Lyons Regional Library District Board.
