Brief Description of Work/Services Provided
Funding will allow The Boulder County Personal Finance Program (BCPFP) to support Longmont residents in building financial resilience through personalized finance coaching and housing counseling. We work closely with participants in the City Rehabilitation and Down Payment Assistance Programs, helping them meet program requirements and achieve homeownership goals. Additionally, we engage with applicants for the City's True North project, guiding them on mortgage qualification, debt-to-income ratios, credit, and sustainable homeownership. We primarily serve residents under 80% AMI with the vast majority of our clients under 50% AMI.
